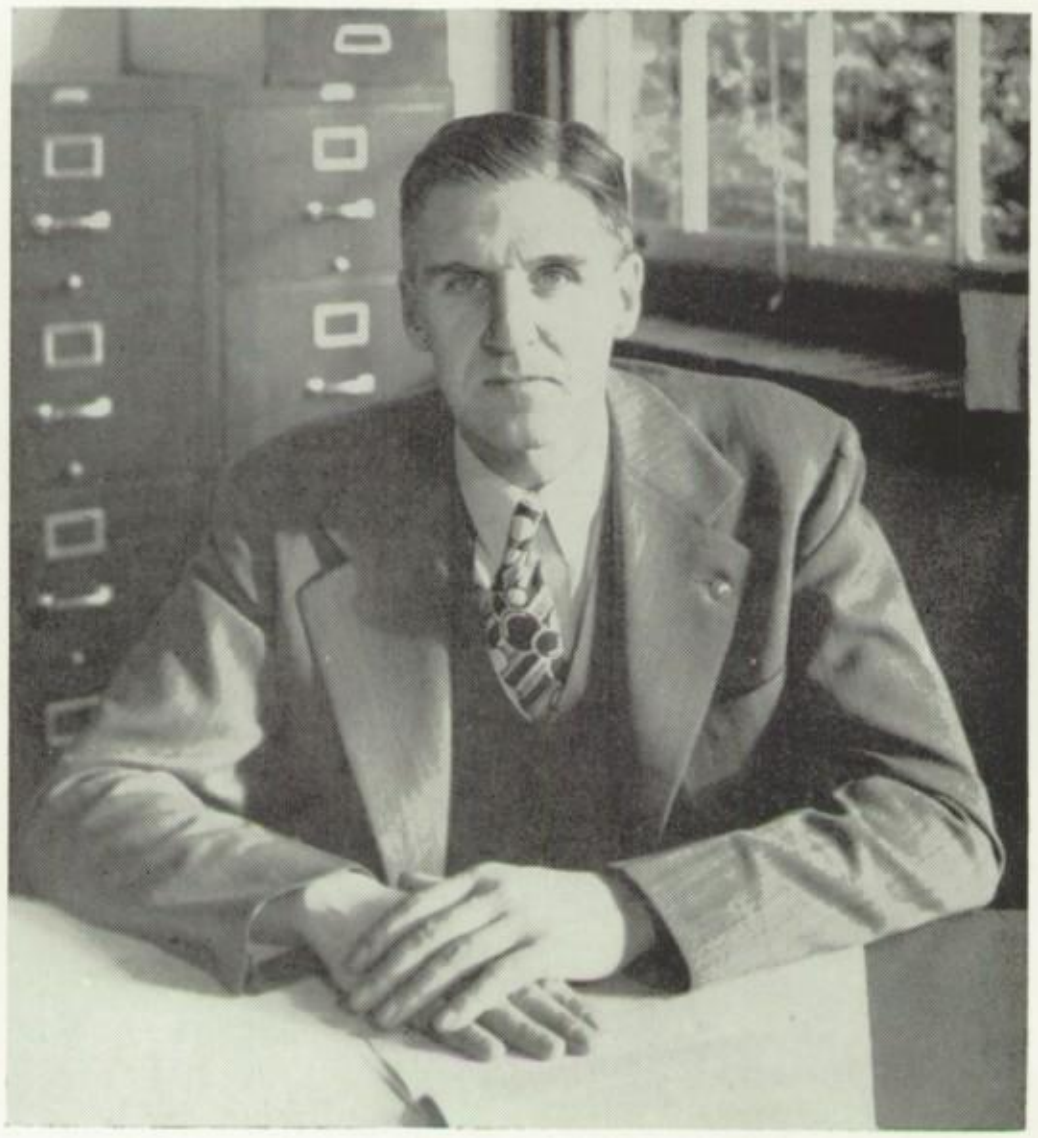
Powers Behind The School



To some of you, these recorded activities of our school will be a reminder of hard work. To others, they will mean enjoyable participation with people who respect and accept you. Some others will see missed opportunity to be an active citizen of a community group. May all of you see something of which you can be proud while recognizing those things which could have been improved. If you can see needed improvement and accept a personal responsibility to work toward that end, I am confident our school will offer a better education and a more satisfying social experience.

EARL J. REED, Principal.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS
OF 1950:

Many well-wishers are content to pass on to other such vague platitudes as "Good luck!" or "I hope you will be happy!" Luck is all right, but there really isn't much thrill that comes from having things dumped in one's lap.

My wish for you would include enough obstacles or adversity to challenge the best in each of you. May you know the thrill of winning many a tough struggle, for in doing so you will inescapably experience lasting happiness. Do not be afraid to buck the odds — fight your way through and may it be your lot to win out!

Sincerely,
ART THOMPSON.

MR. E. J. McNAMARA

MR. SCOTT MILLIGAN

The many activities displayed in this book prove that every student in the R. A. Long High School has a chance to participate in some field. Those of you who have taken advantage of this opportunity have learned in many ways – through the give and take of planning with other students and with advisers, through carrying out assignments you have made for yourselves, through the mistakes as well as the successes of your organizations – that both leadership and ability to follow leadership are needed by each of you. You have learned through these activities how to be better neighbors and better citizens, more understanding and more tolerant of the other person's point of view.

In future years this book will bring back many happy memories and a fuller appreciation of what your school life and school friendships have meant to you. Your superintendent is grateful for a small part of that friendship.

E. J. McNamara, Superintendent of Schools.

Racing towards adulthood, students of R. A. Long stop a moment to record in the Lumberjack impressions of school life that was theirs for a fleeting school-year at the mid-point of the twentieth century.

May the wholesomeness of their youthful ideals and the enthusiasm of their activity as mirrored in this book serve to guide and accelerate the development of a happier and more harmonious world than was that of their childhood days.

Scott Milligan, Assistant Superintendent.

Student Council:

BEGINNING ITS 1949-50 CAREER, the legislative body of our school sponsored the first home game dance and concession of the football season. Its other activities were a joint assembly with Board of Control for student body interest, a sports show to raise funds for athletic insurance, and the annual election assembly and dance. Besides its regular duties of discussing school problems and passing laws, Student Council promoted better cooperation and active interest in the organization through advisories. The Council also succeeded in eliminating second semester tests for seniors with a B or better average and passed a charter for a new Boys' Lettermen club.

The current year's officers are Trilby Packard, president; Stuart Randall, vice president; Tharyon Sandquist, B. of C. president; Marjorie Whitaker, secretary; Dolores Backeberg, historian; Chuck Zimmerman, yell king; and Dorothy Haryu, song queen. Mr. Art Thompson was the faculty adviser and Miss Butler its treasurer.

Board of Control:

"DO YOU HAVE A HALL PASS?" Many have been asked this question, for this is the Board of Control at work. With Thayron Sandquist as president, the Board, with the Citizenship Committee and the Court of Appeals, have accomplished much this year.

Carrying out a part of Thayron's campaign, all applicants for membership took tests before they became members.

The purpose of the Citizenship Committee is to promote better citizenship and co-operation between students and the student government. Alvie Stephenson headed the committee. The Court of Appeals is the higher court where students may appeal their cases.

Assisting Thayron this year were Alvie Stephenson, vice-president; Carol King, secretary; and Phyllis Watson, work-supervisor. Mr. Gorton is the adviser.

THE PAST FIFTY YEARS have been years of great progress. Even more advancement will be made in the next fifty years. Each member of the class of '50 will contribute to this progress. Some of the class's leaders were recognized as far back as their freshman year. Harriss Lamphear was president then. He was aided by Hattie Lou Thompson as vice-president and Jo Ann Hoyt as secretary. In the year of '48, which was the class's sophomore year, Bruce Holmes was president; vice-president, Loleta Freeman; secretary, Delores Backeberg; and treasurer, Barbara Askay. For their junior year they selected Sally Luther as president, Chuck Zimmerman as vice-president, and Beverly Flack as secretary. The year of graduation, the senior year, the class officers were Bob Smith, president; Bob Larkin, vice-president; and Loleta Freeman, secretary.

The class of '50 also has dramatic talent which was evident at the presentation of "The Eyes of Taloc," the senior play. "Evening in Paris," the junior prom under the able chairmanship of Trilby Packard, was a great success as was the much enjoyed junior assembly under the co-chairmanship of John Estey and Joan Shaffer.

Ability, industry, and initiative are qualities which will always be attributed to this senior class. They surely have much to offer the world.

.... Juniors

LIKE MANY JUNIOR CLASSES before them the class of 1951 is looking forward to next year when they will be on top. It seems the step between the year of junior and senior is the greatest in a student's high school career, the invisible step between childhood and man and womanhood.

Highlighting the activities of the class of '51 were the annual Junior Prom given in honor of the graduating seniors, and a football and a basketball concession.

The class has been very proud of its athletic record. The juniors have been represented in a large variety of sports and have done very well in all.

The class of 1951 chose as their officers Dick Park, president; Beverly Bell, vice president; Marcia Kann, secretary; Pat DePriest, treasurer; Gerry Hanson, historian; and LeRoy Evans, yell king.

Sophomores....

HALF OF THE TASK of a high school education is finished for those who have completed their sophomore year. Hence the class of 1952 has completed one more step on the ladder of becoming the men and women of tomorrow.

The sophomore assembly, decorating for commencement, and a concession at a basketball game were a few of the tasks completed by the sophomores this year. Under the capable leadership of President Dale Peterson, Bill Moothart, Vice President, Adele Garner, Secretary, Pat Roberts, Treasurer, and Roy Bettesworth, Yell King, with the faculty advisors, Miss Virtue and Mr. Heard, the sophomores have done very well in making their last year as under-classmen a memorable one.

The class of 1952 has shown by its dependability and cooperation in the past that they will always be able and willing to take on responsibilities given them.

.... Freshmen

THE CLASS OF 1953 has just completed their first year in which they attained much knowledge and experience.

Under the guiding hands of President Jim Hill; Vice President Franklin Guthrie; Secretary Elaine Captain; Treasurer Howard Hartshorn; and Yell King Larry Kavanaugh, the freshmen were quite active.

The various activities were an interesting assembly, the annual eighth-ninth grade dance, and they decorated the auditorium for the Baccalaureate Service.

The class of '53 was assisted and advised by Miss Helen Brekke at the beginning of the year and by Miss Marie Heuer for the second semester.

The freshman class will be one of the last in R. A. Long upon completion of the new Junior High School.

CHECKING BOOKS in and out, putting magazines away, filing in the card catalogue, reading shelves, all make up a day for the members of Library Club, who were instructed in library work by Miss Ann Anderson, school librarian.

This year the members have worked hard on the library bulletin board which stimulated the reading of new books. Using this opportunity to decorate the library for certain seasonal occasions and promoting interest in books by displaying the book of the week was the purpose of this new activity. Another project undertaken by the girls was to establish a Library Club at the Olympic School.

In character with the annual Sadie Hawkin's day dance, the girls decorated the cafeteria with cartoons of Lil' Abner and his friends. Daisy Mae for this year was Eleanor Enwright and Lil' Abner was Delbert Allison.

Girls' Club

"TO THE END OF THE RAINBOW," the sparkling theme chosen as this year's goal, lighted the way to a successful year for Thea Gevers, the able president of Girls' Club.

The organization takes part in numerous activities. In addition, has several annual events which the girls look forward to, such as the Adoption Assembly, Girls' Club Tolo, the Amateur Show and the Girls' Club Tea for their mothers.

They have always tried to develop a friendlier feeling among the girls and to promote their welfare in every way possible. The hostess committee was added to help newcomers get acquainted with teachers and activities.

Girls' Club, which as the name signifies, means all the girls in school, selected Sally Hadley, vice president; Hattelou Thompson, secretary; Sally Satcher, treasurer; and Joan Shaffer, historian; to help Thea this year. Miss Dorothy Wooten is the advisor.

Using a tense and mysterious plot, the Senior Theater Guild presented an entertaining skit for the Girls' Club Amateur Show. The members of the Guild were Betty Chatterton, Sue Gipple, Donna Eubanks, Carol King, Thelma Christensen, and Thea Gevers.

Boys' Club

STARTING THE YEAR OFF with a bang, the Boys' Club stimulated the students' interests in school activities and school sports, the purpose of the club.

Endeavoring to create activity among the boys was well worthwhile, for they played intramural basketball among the classes with the almighty seniors emerging as champs. The seniors, in turn, played the faculty, which was a most exciting game. Mr. Piper, who was the capable adviser and with assistant adviser, Joe Moses, have worked hard this year to make the club active.

Organizing a panel discussion with the girls was one of the projects the boys undertook. For the discussion of the various problems they might have, an assembly was given for the boys.

Leading the boys this year was Jim Moran, president. Assisting him were Jerry Marsh, vice president, and Dick Harper, secretary. The other members of the cabinet were Chuck Zimmerman, David Cotton and George Zdilar.

LILTING STRAINS of beautiful music came through the halls fifth period while the orchestra was practicing for its many engagements. With an enrollment of 50, it had the largest membership in its history. Among its members there were three seniors, nine juniors, seven sophomores, and 13 freshmen. Many of these students were Mr. Gattiker's pupils while in grade school. Twice a week members from the band rehearsed with them to make a balanced group.

Along with the R. A. Long Glee Clubs and the Kessler music group, the orchestra held the annual Christmas Concert. The orchestra as a whole entertained during the intermission of the senior play, made its annual appearance with the combined service clubs, and combined with the band to present the annual Spring Concert. The Music Meet was one of the most important activities of the orchestra. Concluding their schedule, they played for Baccalaureate.

Directing the music group was Mr. Irvin Gattiker. Officers were Jim Moran, president; Elias Stinson, vice president; and Sylvia Sterling, librarian.

THE PRIMARY PURPOSE of the R. A. Long Concert band is to acquaint its members with some of the better music of the masters. Programs include high school assemblies, public concerts, service club concerts, and music festivals. Secondary functions include marching and playing for athletic events, community gatherings and festivals.

With an overloaded schedule ahead, the R. A. Long band started the year out by performing at the home football games and making a trip to Olympia to march before the game between Longview and Olympia. At the close of the football season, the band was invited to be guests at the annual Elks' football banquet in honor of the team. Soon after, under the student direction of Joe Proffitt and Bob Parker, two separate groups were made to provide a pep band for conference basketball games.

For the entertainment of the students, two assemblies were presented during the year. Performing for the service clubs and the Kiwanis Amateur Show were two of the activities. On April 22, the band along with the orchestra and glee club were host at the annual Southwest Washington Music Meet. Again with these groups the annual spring concert was given. As a grand finale, the band participated in the commencement exercises of the 1950 graduating senior class.

For ten consecutive years, Mr. Calvin Storey has been the director. With a membership of 62, this has been the largest enrollment in its history.

R. A. Long Glee:

THIS YEAR Senior Glee's ninety-nine members have taken part in the annual Christmas concert, an out-of-town trip to Vancouver, service club concerts, and the spring concert and assembly. Their singing added much color to the baccalaureate and commencement exercises in the spring.

With the purpose to promote student interest in group singing and choral work, John Billington, the 1949-50 president, has as his officers Thelma Christensen, vice president; Carol King, secretary; Ron Hartgrove, treasurer; Doug Gray and Homer Evans, librarians.

To entertain the public is the purpose of Girls' Trios. Their accomplishments were performances for outside activities, competing in music meets, singing for school organizations and assemblies. Arlene McKinney and Margorie Anderson have accompanied the seventeen girls in trios this year.

Students trained in music at Kessler make up the Freshmen Glee. They are preparing for their advancement to Senior Glee next year. Mr. Bryson directs these three groups.

Boys' Lettermen: GUIDING THE BOYS' LETTERMEN, a newly organized club, is George Zdilar, president. Those helping him make the club a success are Martin Keilwitz, vice president; Chuck Mertsching, secretary; Gerald Holt, treasurer; Chuck Goodner, sergeant at arms; and Russell Miller, their adviser. Although only a new club, they have participated in many activities. A rooting section for all Boy Lettermen was established for the purpose of creating more pep at the games. Pre-game ticket sales for the Sport's Show were undertaken by them. An assembly with the Girl Lettermen was another project accomplished by the club.

Girls' Letterman: SLAM! BANG! OUCH! The gym playgrounds were given another work-out by the Girls' Lettermen of R. A. Long. Mrs. Walstead acted as the adviser, and Florence Hamblin as president.

The feet of the audience were rapidly tapping at the half-time of a football game when the Lettermen, accompanied by the Band, executed a square dance. They honored the Boys' Lettermen Club at a banquet and together presented an assembly. For the grand finale, the sportsters entertained the girls from Kessler for the annual Play Day.

Pep and Service:

PEP CLUB DOES MORE than just yell at football and basketball games: it is a service club, too. During the year, the group helped the city polio drive, aided a needy family from a foreign country during Christmas, gave a Bible to the Board of Control, and offered their services in any other project they were asked to by the school and community.

For the club's annual activities the girls served at the Elks' football banquet, put on a stunt for Armistice Day game, prepared the Thanksgiving pep assembly, entertained the Kelso Lassies at a banquet before the Longview-Kelso basketball game, and had two concessions during the year as a money-making feature for the club.

The girls are expected to attend as many sports events as possible always wearing their Pep sweaters. The code of ethics which the club has adopted is the standard by which the girls conduct themselves and is strictly enforced. The club was under the guidance of Miss Veda Jacobs, the adviser.

A HUSH CAME OVER the audience as the lights went out and the curtains opened. Another play is presented by the Masque and Dagger, R. A. Long's dramatic club.

Presented last year for the first time in Longview, the Children's Theater was such a success that two plays were given, Sleeping Beauty and Peter, Peter, Pumpkineater with the hope of making the Children's Theater an annual affair.

Initiation of new members in March was a gala affair with those to be initiated coming dressed in odd and interesting costumes, representing story book characters. Approximately 25 persons were initiated at that time.

Working with the all-school play by having a part in it or helping with the production, taking part in assemblies, ushering at plays, selling tickets for play productions that are held, all are ways the members work for their points which they must have in order to stay in the club. This is one of the few clubs in which freshmen are allowed to join, providing they have seven points. Students are able to stay in the club by maintaining the required amount of points.

To promote dramatics in R. A. Long High School was the purpose of this club of which Miss Muriel Albert was the adviser.

Community Helpers:

"TO CREATE, MAINTAIN, AND EXTEND throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character" is the worthy purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y clubs.

The girls of these groups have sponsored many commendable activities such as baskets for needy families, overseas packages, rummage sales, and projects for the "Y" in their individual groups. Together the groups played host to 70 other girls of the First Leaders' Conference in this area and sponsored the annual Tri-Hi-Y Christmas tolo, which was a huge success.

Projection Crew – P.A. Crew – Stage Crew

HAS ANYONE EVER STOPPED to think what it would be like if there were no Projection, P.A., or Stage Crew? There would be no school movies, no public address system at assemblies, athletic events, or even dances. There would be no sound effects or backgrounds in any of the plays. These things R. A. Long does have because of the 35 boys from all classes who work in these service clubs, taking much of their own spare time.

The projection crew, with Mr. Nicholson, the advisor, operates the movie projector for the many educational movies that are shown all day.

The Public Address Crew, better known as the P.A. Crew, and their advisor Mr. Cox operate and maintain the public address equipment at all the school's assemblies, athletic events, and dances.

Last, but certainly not the least, there is the Stage Crew, with their adviser Miss Veatch, who has some member present at all the assemblies and any programs to operate lighting, curtains, stage furniture, etc. They are responsible for most of the behind-the-scene production at all the plays.

KNIGHTS OF THE AXE . . . Patrolling basketball and football games, taking money for tickets and keeping spectator stands clean all make up the duties of the Knights of the Axe, one of R. A. Long's outstanding service clubs. Mr. Koth was the advisor.

HI-Y . . . "Buy your program here!" Selling programs at football games, thirty boys lived up to their motto "Service." Entertaining the student body with an assembly and initiating their neophytes, are two more of their many activities.

Mr. Beasley acted as the advisor to these boys.

ALIA ACTS EST! Although Latin is supposed to be a dead language, some fifty-nine students don't seem to agree.

To promote understanding of Roman life and customs through good fellowship activities is the purpose of Latin Club. They do this by translating many stories that tell about the way Romans lived and their habits.

The club meets bi-monthly to plan their varied programs. Latin Club banquet is a gala affair. Julius Caesar, Nero and Horatio had nothing that could compare to the young Latins of R. A. Long.

Featured on the Latin and Spanish Club assembly were distinguished Latin-American students who were attending Portland University.

With Miss Heuer as the advisor, the club had a very successful year. Directing the students were Jackie Imeson, president; Ruth Walker, secretary; Joe Walker, treasurer; and Nancy Hauff, historian.

At the end of the year all Latin students said "Finis laborum bonus est."

Row 3: Miss Heuer, Taylor, McPherson. Samuelson, Eubanks, Molin, Phillips.

HOLA! QUE TENEMAS AGUI? Good fellowship through Latin-American activities is the purpose of Spanish Club. Within the Spanish class, the students learn to speak and read Spanish and the histories of the Latin American countries.

With an enrollment of fifty-nine in both Spanish I and II classes, the club has an opportunity to participate in many activities which are connected with Latin American countries. The Christmas Pinata Festival is one which all Spanish students look forward to.

Bi-monthly meetings give them a chance to discuss their Spanish assembly plans which is presented in the spring under the direction of Miss Heuer, the club advisor.

Leading the second year Spanish students was Dick Mealy, president. Assisting him were Winifred Sedlacek, vice president; secretary, Bob Cole; and Alice Lambdin, treasurer.

Jack MacPherson led the Spanish I students for the year. Bess Sorenson was elected vice president; Rosemary Hampton, secretary; and treasurer, Evelyn Scott.

Honor Society:

HONOR SOCIETY is a National High School Honorary Society whose purpose is to encourage and reward high scholastic attainment. Eligibility is based on the applicants' grades and services performed for the school.

The object of this club is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render services, to promote leadership and to develop characters in the students.

Honor Society has a number of activities on its social calendar. Among them were the formal and informal initiation which every new member must go through, the banquet for the Kelso Honor Society, the Christmas party, and the installation of new officers.

Those who might be considered the busiest members of the club are Mrs. Donnelly, the advisor, Betty Grocott, president, Worth Hedrick, vice president, Donna Wray, secretary, Bev Bell, historian, and Adrienne Toppila, who was in charge of the scholarship committee.

At the end of each year the club awards a gold torch pin to those seniors who have been in the club for three years maintaining a "B" average or above.

Retail Selling:

IF ANYONE WOULD LOOK into room 100 third or fourth period they would see Mr. Hess busily instructing his Retail Selling class on retail work and human relationship.

With Gerald Anderson as president, many activities were undertaken during the year such as luncheon for the merchants, trips to local stores, a Christmas dance, a fashion show and providing jobs for the students in the class of fifteen.

Rifle Club:

"ANNIE GET YOUR GUN" could have been the theme song of the Rifle Club this year with Mr. Drake as adviser. A forty-one gun salute to Mr. Drake for having to put up with such a noisy club. Here are the officers: Joe Walker, president; Sally Luther, treasurer; Bob Dickens, range officer.

Log Staff:

CO-EDITORS of this year's Lumberjack Log, R. A. Long's official newspaper, were Mary Lynne Richards and Wilma Goldberg. The Log has been issued less frequently this year because of the lack of A.S.B. funds. In addition to the co-editors, Marilyn Marx was feature editor, Dick Harper, sports editor, Lois Berquist, business manager, David Pease, advertising manager, Lois Steinbrink, circulation manager, and ten other students composed the staff.

For the past two years, the weekly newscast, Campus Spotlight, has been another big job of the Journalism II class. News for the script was gathered by the Journalism I classes, and compiled by the radio editor, Beverly Flack, and her assistants.

Beginning journalism students wrote for both the Log and radio program along with their regular classroom work.

Annual Staff

CLICKING TYPEWRITERS and humming voices could be heard in room 109 since last September as Jo Ann Hoyt, editor-in-chief, and her staff were hard at work trying to turn out the best annual ever – the 1950 Lumberjack.

Everyone had a special job. Mary Ann Nelson, as art editor assisted Jo Ann in planning the book. The other editors were Joan Shaffer, senior; Dawn Manthe, student life; Pat Fulton, production; Hattelou Thompson, clubs; Bette Tuohino, class; Larry Malone, sports; Flora Rose, administration; June Wark, girls' sports; and Adrienne Toppila, business manager.

In addition to these, 25 other students, seniors, juniors, and sophomores worked either in the publication class or during spare time put in long hours to finish the annual on time.

OFFICE TRAINING STUDENTS worked closely with the Publications class in putting out the book of original writings, Campus Clippings. With a staff of ten, Janie Horn and Alice Weston have worked hard to produce a book of excellent quality for its third year of publication.

F. F. A.

RUNNING TRUE TO FORM, the Longview Chapter of the F.F.A. again this year received ample recognition in many places. At the Cowlitz County Fair and the Western Washington Fair at Puyallup a few weeks later, they received more than their share of blue ribbons and other awards. Doing a swell job at the herdsmanship contest were Orvel Thompson, Don Sublett and Bob Hendrickson.

Winning contests seems to be a specialty in the Longview F.F.A. First places in the potato judging contests, in the herdsmanship at the Western Washington Fair, and in the poultry judging contest were a few of their wins.

Projects this year were of excellent quality and variety. Leading were those who had livestock. A very fine project was that of Norman Hauge, who entered Reserve Champion fat steer at the Cowlitz County Fair. He sold the steer for a total of 55 cents per pound.

Guiding the boys in new methods of farming was Mr. Harold Gilkey, ag. instructor and F.F.A. adviser.

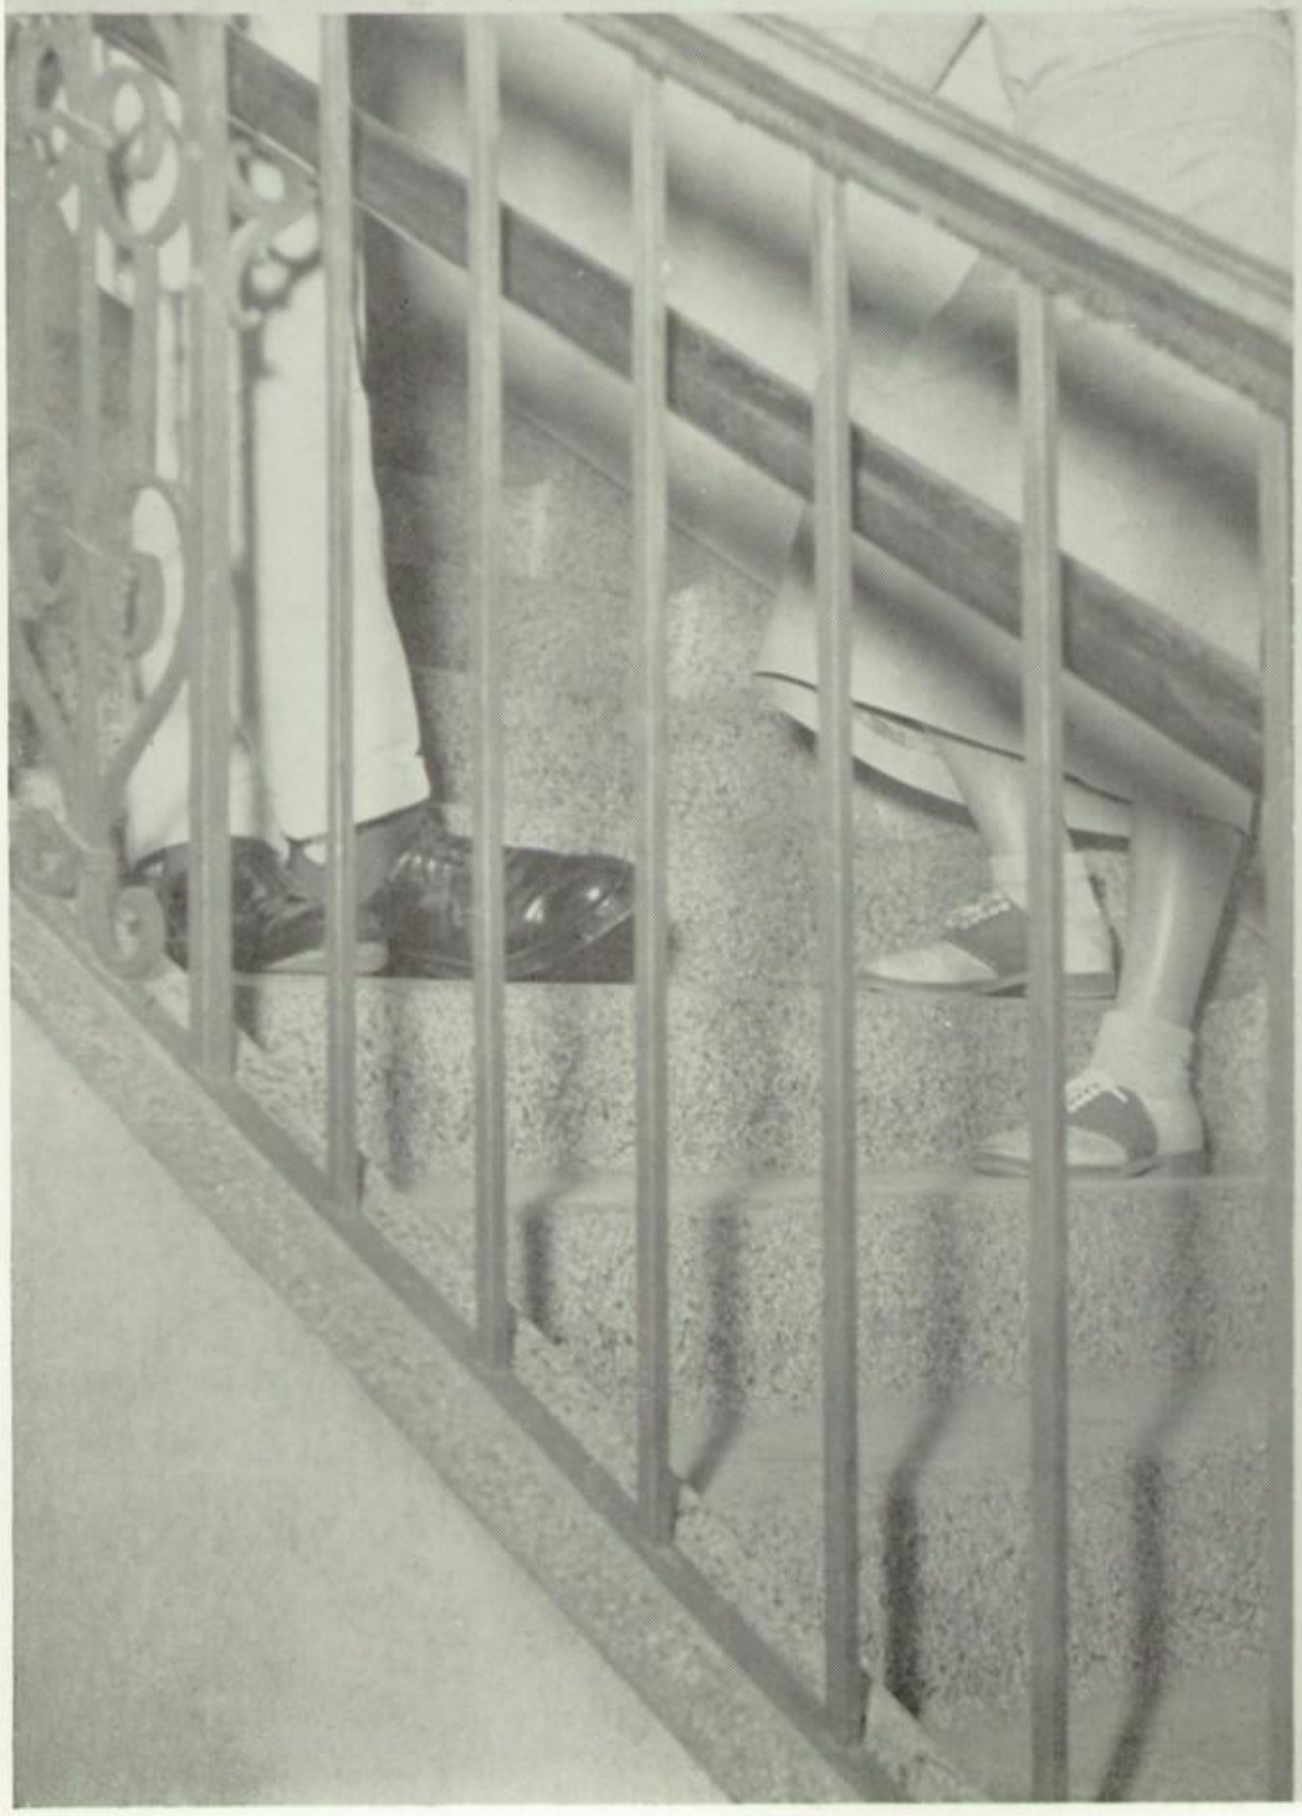
Student Life



Junior Prom: THIS YEAR'S JUNIOR CLASS presented the annual Junior Prom, in the R. A. Long cafeteria, April 1, with David Holmes as chairman. The cleverly decorated cafeteria gave the effect of "The Enchanted Garden," the theme of the Prom. Renny Foster and his band, from Vancouver, furnished the music.

Inset: Beauchamp, Hauff, Hartgrove (parts double cast).

THE MASQUE AND DAGGER CLUB sponsored a Children's Theater Play, "Rumpelstilskin," last year. This was the first Children's Play ever given in this and surrounding communities, and it was such an overwhelming success that it has become an annual affair. This year the club sponsored two plays. The first, "Sleeping Beauty," contained a large group of actors since it was a double cast. The costumes for this play were very elaborate. Next was the Mother Goose rhyme, "Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater," which was presented the last of February. All the plays met with the same success.

Girls' Club Tolo:

REIGNING OVER the traditional Girls' Club tolo October 29, 1949, was Queen Trilby Packard with her prime minister, Jim Moran, and a court of princesses and their escorts. The cafeteria was beautifully decorated, carrying out the theme, "Cinderella's Ball," with colors of blue and silver. The walls were adorned with silhouettes depicting the story of Cinderella, and a gigantic blue pumpkin served as the hat check.

One of the highlights of the Girls' Club social calendar this year was the mother-daughter tea, presented on February 2 in the R. A. Long cafeteria. Bouquets of delicate apple blossoms and pussy willows decorated the tables.

Over 800 mothers and daughters attended the tea this year.

Football—1949: GOING DOWN to a seven-loss three-win year, the 'Jacks did not have a too successful season as far as point victories go, but they can chalk up some other victories such as experience gained that will be used in the future. The sportsmanship they displayed throughout the year was most certainly a victory for the "always game, gridiron gentlemen."

Only four home games were played, but the home crowd was not disappointed, for three of the four games were victories and proof that the 'Jacks had the stuff to get in there and battle. This might be taken as a prophecy, as many of last year's boys will be returning for another year of football. And we are willing to bet Longview will be on top next year.

Also to be proud of is the B-squad, who tied with Vancouver and Kelso for the Southwest Washington B-squad championship.

Basketball: THE 'JACK VARSITY SQUAD this year was made up of two senior, six junior, and five sophomore lettermen. Chuck Byers, one of the three returning veterans of last year, and Bruce Ferguson were the only seniors out for basketball this year, and both saw a great deal of action.

A rough schedule of twelve conference games was fought. Of the twelve nerve racking battles, Longview won four to come out fourth place in the conference. A "never-say-die" attitude taken by the 'Jacks when the odds were against them made it hot for the opposing team.

Coach Joe Moses and his assistants deserve much credit for the excellent job of coaching the Longview basketball teams. We are sure that with this able coaching staff and with the abundance of returning lettermen that next year's team should make a very good showing.

Good luck to a swell guy

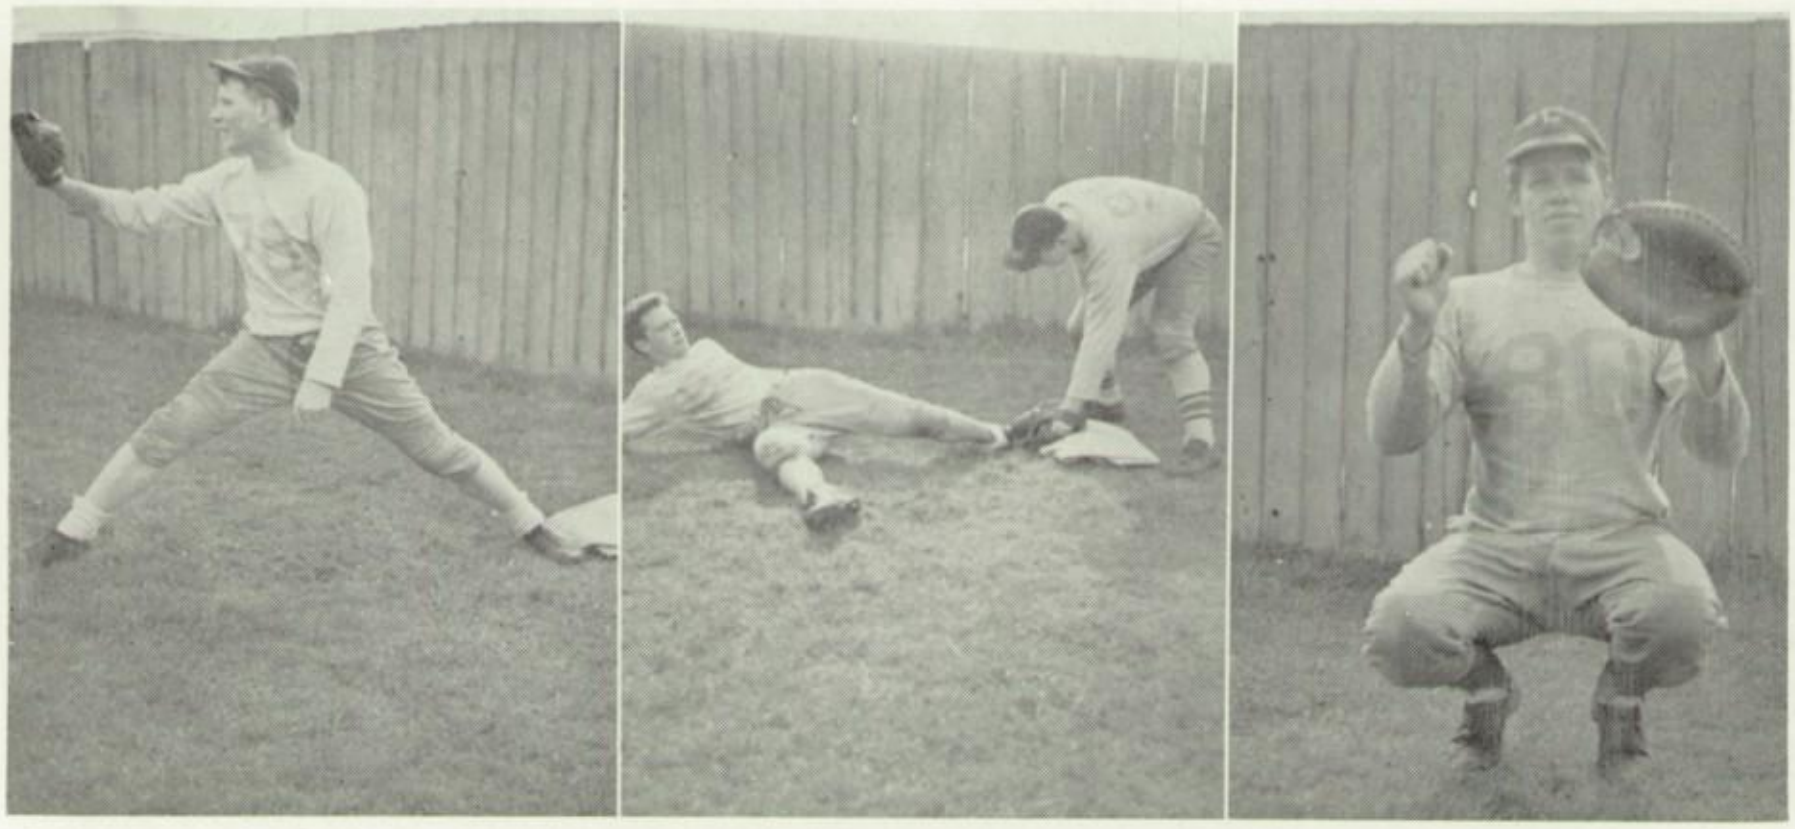
Row 5: Coulter, Nelson, Haycox, Hunt, Sterner, Chisholm, McCormick, Watson, Gray, Magnuson, Flyktman.

Cindermen: WITH APPROXIMATELY seventy boys turning out for track, Coach Em Piper was very busy shaping up a winning team. Longview again excelled in the distance races. Turning in one of the fastest miles in Southwest Washington was Jack Burpee. Also winning their share of events were Dale Eastlick in the hurdles, Roy Bettesworth in the 440 yards, Dick Booth in the 100-yard race, and Kenneth Gilmore in the 880 yard race.

Longview again played host for the annual Rotary Relays which was on April 29. They also competed in the subdistrict meet which was held at Vancouver.

Credit goes to Em Piper and Ralph Dexter for their coaching job.



Baseball: BASEBALL PROVED to be a popular sport at R. A. Long this year with Tiz Miller as coach. Battling the weather, the 'Jacks won a majority of their games. They were a good hitting team and had the determination and the will to come from behind the win.

In a league with Kelso, Camas, Battleground, and Vancouver, Longview played eight games to determine the league champion. A home and home series with Astoria was played in addition to several other pre-season games on our field.

Larkin, Day, Gilbert, Scherer, Delmer and Paul Bighaus handled the infield duties while Lee, Miller, D. Bighaus, McGhee and Smoot were the outfielders. Receiving behind the plate were Goodner and Schweitzer. McGhee, Walter, Powell, and Hamer did the pitching.

Wrestling:

THIS SEASON did not hold as full a schedule as in past years. Two out of the four matches held were won by the Lumberjacks.

Going through the season without a defeat, Delbert McGhee made a total of 18 points. Other boys and their points were Byron Haley with 12 points, and Doug Gray, Dick Peters, David Holmes with 10 points each.

Under the capable guidance of Coach Em Piper, we are sure that next year's wrestling team will be tops.

Row 1: Robinson, Peters, Lewis, Holmes, Parkhurst, Redick, Kruckenburg, VanDeren, mgr.
Row 2: Patten, Skuffeeda, Haley, Gilmore, McPherson, Marthaller, Gentry, McGhee, Hoover, mgr.

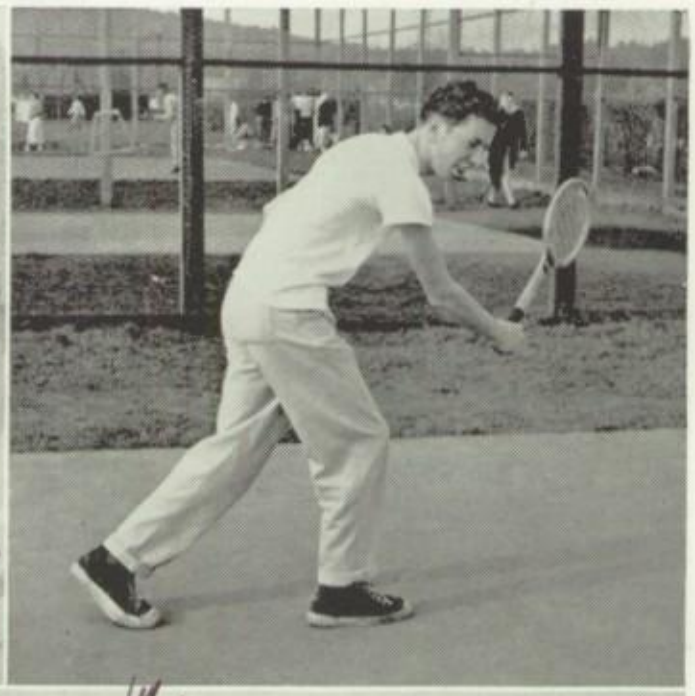
Row 1: Zimmerman, Kennedy, Clayton, Shaw, Walker, Mealy, Houser.
Row 2: Lamb, Shupe, Hall, Goodner, Briggs, Kavanaugh, Miller, coach.

Swimming:

ONE POINT kept the 'Jacks from taking the State Swimming championship at the meet held in Seattle on March 18. Capturing second place, the Longview team excelled in the 150-yard medley relay, composed of Gordon Walthers, Arlen Kavanaugh and Dick Mealy. Other consistent winners were Norman Lamb, Ken Shaw, Pat Briggs, George Goodner and Dick Clayton. All the meets were typical of the Longview and Mt. Vernon schedule which was nip and tuck all the way.

Under the expert guidance of Coach Tiz Miller the swimming team wound up their season with seven wins and two losses.



Tennis:

ALONG WITH SPRING comes the spring sports and among them is tennis.

After Mr. Koth had taken an inventory of his material he had good reason to believe the "50" tennis team would do justice to the name of Longview Lumberjacks.

With Jim Moran, John Merrill, and Dwain Olson filling the single spots, and Les Carpenter and Jack Schuh, Arlen Kavanaugh and John Estey playing doubles they gave all comers rough competition.

Row 1: Olsen, Merrill, Hensel, Schuh, Kavanaugh.
Row 2: Walker, Walthers, Deal, McKee, Estey, Carpenter, Moran, Mr. Koth, coach.

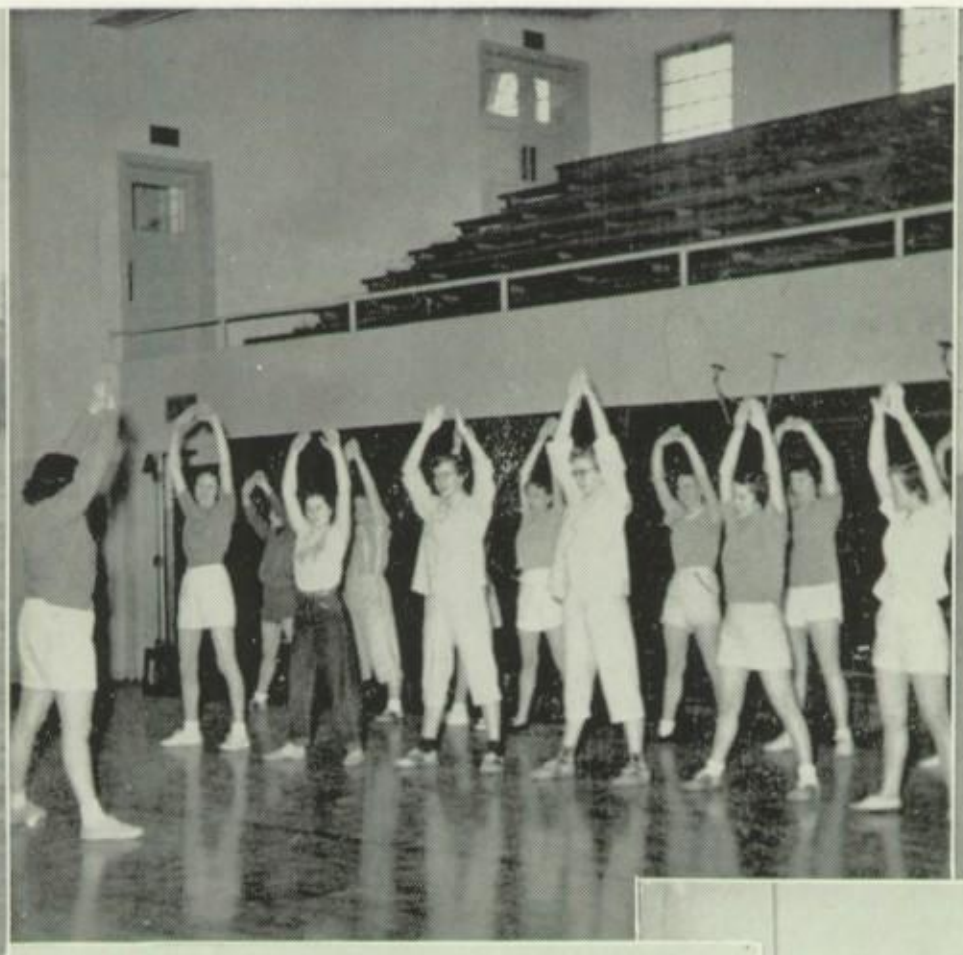
Golf:

WITH THE COMING OF SPRING, golf took its place in the line-up of summer sports with a full schedule for the Lumberjack squad.

This year the "Jacks" matched talent with such schools as Olympia, Aberdeen, Hoquiam, and Vancouver.

Coach Beasley tried once again to bring his team to victory and the Southwest Washington Championship, because they needed only one more year as champions to retain the trophy.

Row 1: Mr. Beasley, coach, Daughterman, Jacobson, Joy.
Row 2: Barnes, Mertsching.



Row 1: Trilby Packard, Lois Lebacken, Joan Shaffer, Thea Gevers, Nita Lucier, Arlene Hubbard.
Row 2: Marjorie Whitaker, Arlen Kavanaugh, Donna Steinbrink, Loleta Freeman, Pat Fulton, Janie Horn.
Row 3: Dawn Manthe, Dolores Backeberg, Sally Luther, Mary Lynn Richards, Beverly Baker, Delores Dietrich, Betty Baker.
Row 4: June Wark, Elaine Hushagen, Margie Hensley, Winnie Sedlacek, Beverly Flack, Caroline Bakkala.
Row 5 Eula Mae Jones, Mable Wilson, Kenny Skuffeeda, Emory Richardson, Donna Eubanks, Alice Weston.

Drawings in this book were done by Sue Hague, cartoons in sports section and end sheets by Dave Pease, and pictures on division pages and some action shots were taken by Emory Richardson.

Granada Studio did the photography and the Longview Daily News published the book.
